“Club of the Grandparents”

Oral Traditions. Stories and legends of our lands and villages. Theater. Music and Movies.

With the help of ‘Our Grandparents’, listening to their stories and learning from them, we will keep alive the traditions of our lands and culture.

The “Club of the Grandparents” provides a space for the family that facilitates the rapprochement of our elders with the young people. We invite you...participate!

Our Grandparents have stories to tell us...stories that are ours too. Together, we will feel the warmth of the family, smelling and savoring the corners of each of our little villages.

- Organizing cultural and recreational outlets for all people over 60 years of age.
- Develop recreational and cultural programs which will achieve the best use of leisure time.
- Avoid isolation of the elderly, preventing them to be disengaged from the outside world. Stop the isolation in their homes and provide opportunities to interact with people in the same situation
- Provides information to facilitate access to public services, community resources, entertainment and performing procedures. Abused and neglected-Claims
- Promote and strengthen through different sets of relations between the elderly and children in our communities, stimulating recreation, learning. Anglo peers. Communication, socialization, integration and participation.
